

TOO STRONG FOR SIN

Ryan Kavalsky

June 11, 2003

IntroA: RH→Eoctave, LH comes up to play EM scale down the octave
LH→E Gb A Db D

IntroB: RH→Eoctave, LH comes up to play Em scale down the octave
LH→E G C B B B B B B B

IntroC: Em D/Gb G Am G D/Gb C/E D C C B (2x), decrescendo bass
E octave

Verse 1:

Em D/F# G Am G D/F# D
For ty days wandering through the sand
Full of Life, Jesus takes a stand
Satan says, "Turn this rock to bread"
Still too strong, here's what Jesus said:

Chorus:

C G/B B/D# Em Em/D
“(Let) Go of me! You ought to know
You can't be one in control
('Cause) God is the shield for my soul
C B C D B/D#
(So) You can't have it! (No) you can't have it.”

Verse 2:

Jesus Christ (was) offered all the land
(But) Nothing nice comes from Satan's hand
“All is Yours underneath the sky
(If You'd) Worship me”, (and) this was Christ's reply:

< Chorus >

< Instrumental (IntroC, Chorus) >

Verse 3:

One last time, Satan tries again,
“As a sign, (if) You are Son of Man
Just jump down, (God's) Angels will come!”
“You can't win! (With) God, I'm way too strong!”

< Chorus (2x) >

< Repeat “You can't have it” (2 more times), end with IntroB into an EM chord >